

Your denying access to the American citizens to provide their input into the FCC deliberations on decisions on media consolidation is unconscionable (but predictable from people that accept trips as bribes from the industry giants). SHAME ON YOU. The airwaves belong to the American citizens not to you or the media giants. They are not yours to sell.